

Keep the do not call list intact as it is. Protect our senior citizens from annoying and soliticing vendors as well as con artists. It has been a relief for my 87 year old mother and mother-in-law not to be bothered by unsolicited phone calls. I too enjoy eating dinner without disturbances by vendors. Do not take away our rights to peace and tranquility in our own homes.